

Ganga is a girl with a disability. She cannot walk. She cannot talk so she is sad and angry. She asks Mummy why can't I walk and talk?

So Mummy tells her a story. Ganga was born to a different pregnant mommy. Ganga was a very sick baby in the hospital.

The doctors helped Ganga so she could see and hear and move and kick and think! Ganga could learn and think very well! The doctors helped Ganga so she could laugh and joke and use a

a computer and have friends and talk with her eyes!

But the doctors could not help her to talk or walk. So this is why

Ganga is sad and angry and jealous because other children can walk and talk.

Mummy knows Ganga is upset.

Mummy loves Ganga.
